HUMANITARIAN MISSIONS and EMERGENCIES

PRESENTATION

FRATERNIDADE – International Humanitarian Federation (FIHF) is a non-profit civil association, active in 18 countries, with international headquarters in Carmo da Cachoeira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, about 250 km from Belo Horizonte.

Of a philosophical, cultural, humanitarian, environmental and charitable nature, the FRATERNIDADE International FIHF brings together 22 national and international civil associations that provide services for free. Independent and neutral, FRATERNIDADE International FIHF accepts all beliefs, cultures, and religions and has no connections with political, economic, or formal religious groups. Supported by donations and partners, without being compensated for the services it provides. The activities it develops are voluntary, altruistic, and selfless.

The main values are imprinted in the name of FRATERNIDADE – International Humanitarian Federation: to practice and disseminate fraternity among all the peoples and with the Kingdoms of Nature, awakening and expanding the human consciousness to a life of peace, love, and altruism.
